

JUNE 21-22 2015

“ Organisation was helpful and efficient - build up was stress free with easy access and parking.

The fair brought serious buyers who were there to learn about new products. Everyone was friendly and happy to discuss there and then which products would suit their environment etc.

We came away very upbeat, with a positive attitude and have already achieved some new business.

A very worthwhile trade Fair...”

“ We have exhibited at the Harrogate show and each year found it better. Folkington's is a Sussex based brand and we now have a thriving customer base in the North, much of this being as a result of our attendance at the show, where we have consistently met high quality customers. And North Yorkshire is a great place to be in June!”

“ ‘Harjinder's Kitchen had a great first time at the Harrogate Speciality Food Show, not only did we make some great contacts, we were also honoured with the Editor's Choice Award which elevated our Punjabi Tarka Masala Kit to a greater height. Another opportunity was taking part in 'Feeding the Dragon' which was a great way to receive valuable feedback from leading experts as well getting much support during the Presentation from the Guild of Fine Food.”

“ I had my first trade stand at Harrogate Speciality Food Show 2014! I had lots of support and advice from everyone at the Guild of Fine Food and the event organisation was superb. As a new, small and rapidly growing business, the show was a great way of reaching new customers in Yorkshire and beyond, and a good opportunity to catch up with my existing customers. It also provided an excellent perfect platform to raise awareness of the Tipple Tails brand.”

Jane Stammers, Tipple Tails

“ This was our first major trade show and we decided it would be an ideal opportunity to officially launch our brand to the speciality market. We had a great 2 days where we met hundreds of people and gained some invaluable feedback and advice from both customers and fellow exhibitors. We came away with ALOT of leads and through these leads we have picked up a number of new retailers and wholesalers, and it's only 2 weeks since the show!”
